Polynesian weddings are purely symbolic and have no legal value. They are therefore available for vow renewals, anniversaries and any other type of commitment for all couples.

Weddings ceremonies held at the Town Hall of Moorea are legally recognized.

Pictures in this document are for illustration only and are not contractual.

All outdoor ceremonies are subject to weather conditions.

An aerial photograph of a tropical resort. On the left, there is a large swimming pool with a curved edge, surrounded by lounge chairs and umbrellas. A sandy beach runs along the pool and the water. In the center and right, a wooden walkway leads to several overwater bungalows with thatched roofs. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, and the sky is clear.
